Editorial note ----

Many thanks to the clubs and secretaries who took the time to send notes regarding meeting nights. This is one of the main purposes of the bulletin and it is regrettable if the meeting time or place is in error. Also, I'm sure we have several wrong addresses in our mailing list--the only way it can be corrected is to hear from you. This applies as well to club addresses. Perhaps, the bulletin is going to an obsolete address and not getting to your club secretary at all. Again, I would like to urge clubs to send reports of their meetings. Let us share in your activities and ideas.

I'll take this opportunity to thank Paul Lyons of Burlington for his helpful letter. After begging for material for the bulletin, it was a big morale boost to receive some new "grist" for my mill. Hopefully, we will be able to include some of his material in an early issue. Spring is always a busy time in the hobby, as witnessed by the long listing of up-coming shows.

(Reprinted in part from The Numismatist, March 1975)

Guidelines for the 51st Coin Week celebration are now available from ANA headquarters. Through the cooperation of numismatists from across the country, April 20th through the 26th promises to be the biggest week of the year for numismatics. Once again, clubs and individuals are asked to prepare reports of their activities. Those who have promoted National Coin Week in a superior and exceedingly original manner and have also exposed the most non-collectors to the hobby, will receive special recognition from the ANA. Sponsors of new members will also be recognized this year with a special certificate. Last year's membership drive was a huge success, adding more than 1800 new members. The NCW committee reminds participants that the original purpose of National Coin Week was to educate the general public about the organized numismatic hobby. Further suggestions include expanding club meetings, talks, and displays. Most banks and other public buildings are available for setting up exhibits, and, in fact, usually welcome such events. Many local newspapers would be glad to help publicize the event. Many people are not aware of the far-reaching impact of the story of money and this is the numismatist's opportunity to spread the word.

ANA membership applications, fliers, and other promotional materials are available from ANA headquarters. Send your name and address to National Coin Week, American Numismatic Association, Box 2366, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80901.

A FEW REMARKS ABOUT SILVER by Harry Peters

In these days of inflation, one of the things that interests many coin collectors, investors and dealers alike, is the silver market. Being a coin collector, I am referring especially to silver coins.

Playing the silver market is probably one of the most dangerous things a small dealer or collector with limited capital can do. If the market has a big drop for several days in a row, he may find himself locked in, with a big loss for several weeks or months.

The person most apt to come out with a profit in silver is the dealer with a large amount of capital who can ride out the drop in the silver market and wait until it comes back, or the collector or investor who buys smaller amounts, lets it accumulate, and then, when he can get a good price for it, sells it for a profit.

As for the future, nobody knows for sure, but there are still several factors that point to the fact that silver coins will be good property ;

#1 - Many are being melted.

#2 - More silver is being consumed in industry, etc. than is being mined today.

#3 - The quality and quantity of the coins still available is constantly going down, due to circulation, fire, flood loss, etc.

Referring again to the small collector, who can keep the coins for several years, or for his collection, I have observed several collectors buying silver dollars at the monthly club auctions. At times, they were paying more than the going rate for these coins. When common date silver dollars were selling for about $2- $2.50, they would pay as high as $3-$3.50 for them; yet today, with even the common dates bringing $4 and more, they are still ahead. Occasionally, they would get a good buy too, and, taking everything into consideration, today they are way ahead even in this type of buying.

So - here's to the small collector who keeps in there pitching. The law of averages is with him and, over the years, he should come out ahead.

The following is a sample of the "goodies" sent me by Paul Lyons.....

DO YOU JUST BELONG?      _ (author unknown)

Are you an active member,
the kind that would be missed?
Or are you just contented
that your name is on the list?
Do you attend the meetings
and mingle with the flock?
Or do you stay at home
and criticize and knock?
Do you ever go to visit
a member who is sick
Or leave the work to just a few
and talk about a "clique"?
There's quite a program scheduled that I'm sure you've heard about
And we will all appreciate it if you will come and help us out.
So come to the meetings often
and help with hand and heart.
Don't be just a member,
dig in, do your part.
Think this over, member,
you know right from wrong.
Are you an active member ---or do you just belong?

The Cedar Rapids Coin Club annual Coin Show was held at the IBEW Hall March 15th and 16th. An estimated 1200 guests from 59 Iowa cities and four states attended the show. Uncirculated Morgan Dollars, Walking Liberty halves, Franklin halves, and War Nickel year sets were given on the hour to lucky door prize ticket holders. Thirty exhibits in five categories were the feature of the show. The INA Best Of Show trophy went to Bob Douglas (C.R.). In US Coins the winners were: Lou Strnad (C.R.), Marjorie Owen (Adel), and John Kelso (C.R.). Winners in Tokens-Medals-Foreign were: John Kelso (C.R.), Bob Douglas (C.R.), and Marlene Kelso. In Currency the winners were: Gerald Shepard (C.R.) (1st and 2nd) and L L Owen (Adel). Junior winners were: Layne Samuelson (Jewel), Bob Burns (C.R.), and Brooke Samuelson (Jewel). A new special category, "Best Of Previous Best Of Show", was won by L L Owen (Adel). This category is designed to bring all top notch exhibits to compete only amongst themselves and to enhance the educational aspect of our hobby. Photos of this unique trophy are shown to the right. The Cedar Rapids club is anxious to hear your opinion of this category.

Thirtysix tables occupied by thirty dealers from Iowa, Illinois, Nebraska, and Colorado comprised the bourse area. Following the show on Saturday, an informal banquet was held for the club members, exhibitors, and dealers. C.R. dealer Joe Marshek's 69th birthday was celebrated with a special birthday cake..

To show how proud the Cedar Rapids club is of their junior members, show chairman Bob Douglas, bourse chairman Jim Hamling, and exhibit chairman Dallas Kaegbein appointed the following junior members as their assistants respectively: Tom Heath, Ed Schafer, and Mike Kaegbein. Over 20 other junior members were on hand to assist dealers and exhibitors unload and load after the show.

The Cedar Rapids club has a membership of 96 as of the end of March and has prospects of topping the 100 mark in April. Their average monthly meeting attendance for the last 6 months has ranged from 55 to 60. The club strives for educational programs each month that appeal to both the older and junior members.
